

All Things Medicare for Home Health Providers

September 11, 2019

AM session: 9:00am – 12:00pm

PM Session: 1:00pm – 4:00pm

LIMITED SEATING- Register Early

Description: Do the recent and upcoming Medicare changes have you feeling overwhelmed and concerned? Let's take some time to unveil these changes such as Patient Driven Groupings Model (PDGM), the Provisional Period of Enhanced Oversight, Targeted Probe and Educate (TPE), Monitoring Misuse of Home Health Request for Anticipated Payments (RAPs), New Medicare Card Transition and more. We'll also address top Medical Review Denials, Common Claim Submission Errors (CSEs), core functionality and recent enhancements to our online web portal, myCGS, all while leaving you with invaluable resources to ensure you are compliant with all things Medicare related.

Learning outcome: Increased awareness of Medicare changes and regulations.

- The purpose of this session is to keep home health agencies informed of Medicare updates and the latest regulations impacting their billing practices. Participants will also engage in top billing errors and resolutions discussion and receive reminders concerning available resources and self-service tools offered by CGS.

Speaker: Nykesha Scales, MBA

HH&H Senior Provider Relations Representative, CGS Administrators

Nykesha has worked with the Medicare Program for 16 years, with the majority of her years of service spent in the Provider Outreach & Education Department. During her tenure with CGS, Nykesha has also served as a Congressional Liaison, Tier II Customer Service Representative and a Compliance Analyst. Nykesha received her M.B.A from Liberty University, as well as a bachelor's in Business Management from Guilford College with concentrations in Organizational Communication and Human Resources. Ms. Scales' primary responsibilities include conducting training through in-person, teleconference and webinar events. Her primary focus is developing and delivering educational programs and learning tools to assist Medicare-certified home health and hospice providers.
